Codex Alera Series by Jim Butcher So I am on the second to last book, each one more thorough and bottomless as the last. I have never been a big reader, but I do have a niche genre of books I melt over. This series is one of the best, a medieval fiction esque genre that conveys a coming of age as you follow a young teen well into his adult life.

First Lord's Fury is the last volume in the very very excellent Codex Alera series by Jim Butcher, and it leads the six-book story to a terrifying finale. I enjoyed it a lot - we get a lot of well-thought action, and character development that builds on the established development of the previous books and avoids common tropes.
