There was a time, long ago, when the female body was worshipped as sacred, and men and women lived in partnership in egalitarian communities. But as our culture transformed into a more patriarchal society, so too did attitudes about women. For ages, women have been shamed and misinformed about their bodies—and this legacy has been handed down for millennia.

Today (1950), the hatred of the Moslem countries against the West is becoming hatred against Christianity itself. Although the statesmen have not yet taken it into account, there is still grave danger that the temporal power of Islam may return and, with it, the menace that it may shake off a West which has ceased to be Christian, and affirm itself as a great anti-Christian world Power.
